

My Call to Leadership

Leadership is a practice not a position. People cannot follow you unless you have a clear vision and a sense of direction. Each of us has a leadership story to share that will help others dare to take action to make recovery oriented practice a reality. Use this worksheet to develop your own leadership story.

What calls you to work in the mental health field?

Describe your outrage:

How should things be?

What are the universal themes of your story that most will identify with?

How will you call others to join you?
